

CALLING ALL MYSTERY READERS!

I would like to invite any parents, older siblings, grandparents, relatives, or other special people to surprise your child by being a "Mystery Reader" this year in our classroom.

Students LOVE having their family, friends, and relatives visit our classroom to share in our learning by reading a favorite story aloud to our class.

Mystery Readers will visit us on Fridays at 11:00 p.m. each week, during our literacy block. Readers are asked to bring a book to read or read a teacher-chosen book from our classroom library. Please select a book that will not take up more than 30 minutes of class time. I can provide books or help find them in the library. Picture books often work best, but there are many other options including poetry, short stories, legends, and more!

If you can find a date that works for you, please sign up to be a Mystery Reader for the 2007-2008 school year! There are many open dates to choose from throughout the year.

Included with this note is a list of dates that are available.

Please indicate at least two dates (if possible) that will work for you so that I can accommodate the most people. You can either email me your preferred dates or send your top three choices in a "top secret" envelope to school with your child. I will get back to you as soon as I can to confirm your official Mystery Reader date. Remember, you are a mystery to the class, so try not to tell your child when you will be coming!

Please see me or drop me a "secret" note if you have any further questions. We can't wait to meet our 2007-2008 Mystery Readers!

Sincerely,
Ms. Coleman
